TWO TWO LONG YEARS

Was Anna Meyers Sentenced for Her Wicked Conduct.

SHE WILL NOW GO TO DETROIT

To Expiate Her Crime Against Virtue in the House of Correction—Other Court News.

Anna Meyers will suffer two long years of prison life and discipline for the crime of running a disreputable house on Island street. It was into her house that the girls were taken who charge Frank Smith and Margaret Cook with inducing them to enter upon a life of shame. Anna Meyers was arraigned at 2 o'clock yesterday in the superior court, Judge Burlingame gave her the private examination required by law. When asked if she had anything to say why she should not be sentenced she replied that she had not. She had run a disreputable house and there was no use denying it. She was then sentenced to two years in the Detroit house of correction.

Frank Smith, accused with Margaret Cook of procuring girls for immoral purposes is now on trial before a jury. The case will probably occupy most of the day. Smith is being defended by James T. Moloney.

SAYS IT WAS HER OWN.
Mrs. Mary Quinsey Sues Heirs of Her Husband.

Mrs. Mary Quinsey, wife of John Quinsey, who committed suicide last summer and attempted to murder his wife, began suit in the superior court yesterday to clear a cloud upon the title of some property in the Kent plat of the city. She claims that she owned the property, but always trusted to her husband to pay the taxes and collect the rent. In 1886 Mrs. Quinsey promised to leave the property to her husband if he survived her. A short time afterward he committed suicide. She then told her husband's heirs that she was an agreement on her part to leave the property to him when she died. She could not read and took his word for it and signed the paper. She now discovers that a warranty deed has been filed. The deed, she thinks, is the paper she signed. She also finds two tax titles on the property, both in her husband's name. One of these was executed by Mayor Dikeman and one by Mayor Weston.

The suit is brought against George Quinsey, Moses Quinsey, Michael Quinsey and Eliza Bromley, the brothers and sister of her husband, they being his heirs. She sets forth that if the deed to her husband was allowed to stand it gives her husband's heirs a share in the property, when, in fact, it is all hers. She alleges fraud in procuring her signature to the deed, and asks for an injunction to restrain the heirs from selling or mortgaging the property.

EXCUSED WITH A WARNING.
Boys Who Will Now Avoid the Superior Court.

Will White and Ernest Wisneman were tried at the last term of the superior court for burglary and larceny. The jury disagreed and yesterday the case was called on for a second trial. They were charged with burglarizing Pock's restaurant on Fountain street. Judge Burlingame told the boys he was satisfied they had been prowling around nights with bad boys and they now had a chance to get out of a bad mess and make use of themselves and have some use of the community. He said if they ever came before him again and were convicted he would treat them exactly as if it was their second offense and give them the full extent of the law. He asked them if they wanted what the consequence would be. The police would be suspicious of them and if they went back to associate with the bad boys they would be a question of but a few months before they would come back, but if they would go to work and remain at home evening they would live down their disgrace. The boys have been in jail some months.

JUST TOOK IT FOR FUN.
Nicholas Smith Will Board in Jackson Eighteen Months.

Nicholas Smith, a Hollander about 30 years of age, charged with picking the pockets of a farmer, was arraigned in the superior court at 2 o'clock yesterday. Smith admitted that he had his hand in the man's pocket just for fun, but that the other man objected to it and had him arrested. Judge Burlingame told him he was too old to go to jail, but that about eighteen months in Jackson would give him a more perfect idea of the value of the money of others.

Two Divorces on One Ground.
Judge Adair granted a divorce yesterday to John Cousins from Marion Cousins on the ground of habitual drunkenness. The testimony showed that Marion consumed about a quart each day and staggered about the streets. Johanna Peters was separated from John Peters on similar grounds.

Lyons Will Not Be Tried.
J. J. Lyons has been in jail three or four months charged with forgery and a house at present as if he would not be compelled to look for a job during the present winter. He was up in the superior court for trial yesterday morning. A motion to quash the information was argued and denied. Judge Burlingame ruled that the prosecutor could amend the information and gave the respondent the privilege of having the case continued over the term which was done. The present term lasts until March, so Lyons must remain in jail until then.

Confessed Their Guilt.
Cornelius DeHuis and Clinton Worden, charged with stealing an overcoat from Good Templars hall, pleaded guilty in police court and will be sentenced today. DeHuis has been in trouble several times and seems to be hastening towards state prison at a rapid pace. It is Worden's first offense.

Taken to Detroit Prison.
Deputy United States Marshal Brewster left last night for Detroit with E. A. Glassford, convicted on a charge of embezzling from the post office in Bluffton, Mich. His sentence is nine months. Mr. Brewster also took Meizer, the Charlevoix post office embezzler, who will serve two years.

John Hoorn, peddling without a license; sentence deferred to December 22.

C. DeHuis and Clinton Worden, larceny; sentence deferred to December 22.

Tom Scully, drunk; paid $4.55.

Court Notes.
Otto Laundauer was discharged yesterday in police court from the charge of peddling bread without a license.

The action of the common council last Monday caused this disposition of the case.

Judge Haggerty gave two men what they must accept as both Christmas and New Year's presents. Paddy Carroll and Tom Morgan were each sent to jail for thirty days for being drunk.

Hendrick Louper began suit in the circuit court to enforce a mechanic's lien upon a house on lots 16 and 17 of Powell's addition, owned by R. A. Henson.

Clara Zindema, convicted of resisting Deputy Sheriff Dougherty, was sentenced to one year in the Ionia house of correction.
